After considerable discussion in regard to the pledges of pecuniary safety, which must be made to secure the end for which the Committee was appointed, and a reheareal of the advantages to be derived to those interested, from some positive arrangement concerning the site of the Fair, a written proposal from the United States Agricultural Society was read and laid over for future consideration.

CINCINNATI AS SHEN BY A STRANGER.-The

Cincinnati as Shen by a Stranger.—The following paragraph, from the Cincinnati correspondence of the Dayton Journal, will offer to the mind a very clever picture of the Metropolis of the West during the past week. The atmosphere of the city, however, is not at all like that of London; for here it is generally soft, balmy and salubrious, while the azure sky that may be found at almost any time above our heads would suggest, to any who has seen it, that which overlangs the Amo. The correspondent says:

"Business, of all kinds, during the past week has been quite brisk. Produce brings a good price, and thus far pork-packers have no reason to complain. The wholeasted ry goods and grocery trade is unusually good. Manufacturers are shipping an immense quantity of their wares to the Southern and South-western markets, where they obtain remunerative prices. Steamboats have no trouble in obtaining full cargoes, and are all kept busy. Buildings, large buildings, are being torn down to make room for others of mammoth size; among those that are being demolished is that on the north-east corner of Vine and Third-streets, once, and not many years ago, regarded as the finest residence in the city. A modern business-house now costs about seventy-five thousand dollars, and rents for fifteen thousand a year. A very pretty income for one family.

"New houses are going up in every part of the city, and we have never observed more activity in business in the Queen City. Fourth-street, the great fashionable thoroughfare, is crowded from morning till night, and has very much the appearance of Broadway, New York. The numerous street railroad cars, carriages, drays, &c., render crossing it alittle hazardous in 1800, and in 1870 another Fourth-street will be required to accommodate the fashionable masses. In twenty years more the probability is that a new street will be built on the hills over the fashionable quarter of Cincinnati. All the ground below the hills is now nearly densely covered with buildings, where the coal smoke, dust an

As we have already stated, the deceased was nearly seventy years of age, and has a family consisting of a wife and two children, fully grown, residing at Long Bottom, about two hundred miles from the city, on the Ohio River. The body will be kept by the Coroner until to-morrow, to await the arrival of his friends, after which, should they not appear, it will be interred.

LAYING THE CORNER-STONE OF ST, XAYIER CRURCH.—The corner-stone of the new Catholic Church on Sycamore-street, between Sixth and Seventh, was hid yesterday afternoon with appropriate ceremonies. The different Catholic societies of the city met at one o'clock at the Cathodral and formed into procession under the direction of Michael N. Kenting, when, after marching through many of the principal streets of the city, they proceeded to the site of the new edifice.

The procession was very long, and before the hour at which the corner-stone was to be laid, the street was thronged with people, to the amount of eight or nine thousand, who, despite the intensely chilling atmosphere, had assembled to witness the ceremonies. The stone, after a number of articles had been deposited in it, in accordance with the ordinary custom was laid, by Archbishop Purcell, assisted by Rev. W. O. Higgins.

After the exercises had been completed and a lengthy and eloquent address delivered by the Archbishop, the procession was again formed and marchyd back to the Cathedral where it was dismissed.

A STRANGER KNOCKED DOWN AND ROBBED. A man who gave his name as Augustus Kramer, residing a short distance from Columbus, in this State, was picked up at an early hour yesterday morning, at the corner of Third and Pike. His head was severely cut as if by a sharp stone, and he stated that he had been assaulted and robbed of a watch worth $40 and $20 in gold, which had been taken from his vest pocket. He had just returned from Newport, and, while endeavoring to find his hotel, wandered off in that direction, when he was met hy a couple of scoundrels, who treated him in the manner above related. Prasonal.—The name of United States Deputy Marshall, William L. Manson, has been spoken of in connection with the office of City Councilman in the Eighth ward. Mr. M. has a number of friends who are quite sanguine in their anticipations that he will receive the nomination.

The friends of Major Joseph W. Burke are urging his claims for the same office, in the Fourth Ward, and seem to be confident of success.

MELANCHOLY SUICIDE—A MAN SEVENTY YEARS OLD DROWSS HIMSELF AT MIDNIORT.—
Coroner Carey was called upon, yesterday morning, to hold an inquest upon the body of a man, about seventy years of age, named Jacob Gillilan, which was found in the river, at the foot of Ludlow-sirect. From the evidence elicited before the Coroner's jury, we learn the following facts:

The deceased had formerly been a steamboat pilot, and retired from that position in comfortable circumstances, but afterward became reduced, and entered a loan office, on Front-street, near Sycamore, in company with a man named Green. Here, also, he failed, and then took the business in his own hand, but was still unable to succeed.

For some time past, his friends have noticed in him all the symptoms of a deeply-scated melancholy, but had no intimation that he entertained any idea of self-destruction. On Saturday night last, about ten o'clock, he went into a confectionary establishment, on Front-street, where he procured something to eat. Laker, he proceeded to the Newport Ferry-landing, and threw himself into the river.

His right leg was broken and his head severely hurt, the contusion amounting in all probability to a fracture. He was taken up in an apparently moribund condition, but he afterward revived sufficiently to be carried to his residence on Fifteenth-street. be carried to his residence on Fifteenth-street

Two Hundred Dollars for Twenty-five Cents.—A young man, a day or two ago, entered Wm. Harding's restaurant, on Sixth street, near Central-avenue, for the purpose of eating some oysters. They were brought to him, dished up in excellent style; for before he finished eating them he discovered seven very large and valuable pearls, worth, in the aggregate, over two hundred dollars. By this time he doubtless assents to the adage, "it is better to be born lucky than rich." TWO HUNDRED DOLLARS FOR TWENTY-FIVE

Friday's New York Trisone observes concerning Saturday:

"In money there is nothing new to notice. The quisation is $6.7 if conf. for paper, and $260 if cent. for domaind loan.

"Foreign exchange is very dull. The market has hardly opened for the Saturday stemner; but bunkers are offering sterling bills at the loc is, and frame at $1.6 \text{derity}, it is probable that the best bills can be proposed in the lowest of the above rates. New York Day Goods Marker. Friday's Tribuse thus speaks of the Dry Goods trade:

There has been no important change in the Dry Goods marked the past week. The South having been supplied for the present, and the Western trade not yet making the speamer as anticipated, less activity.

The stock of heavy Domestic Cotton Goods continues light, and no anxiety is, felt by makers as to the continuance of the demand. The deliveries for China and the South American markets are fully equal to any week of the season, amounting to 3.375 packages. Other styles are accumulating somewhat, and less firmness is noticed.

There has been no change in the general Woolen Goods market, except a determination on the part of holders of inseasonable and undesirable goods to clean out stocks at important concessions. This has been repeated from time innemental by makers of Fanicy Cassimeres, who have not succeeded in catering to the baste of, the customers, which fact, however, is never fully developed to them until the season is past. Fancy Cassimeres have been repeated from the customers, which fact, however, is never fully developed to them until the season is past. Fancy Cassimeres have been sold during the past week at Sc. which, if a decent regard to style had been observed, would have been seld months since at $1 12½ g yard. There is no doubt, if the cystem which has been so often advocated by us could be adopted, that the advantage gained would be equal to the present profits of the business.

The domand for fancy Cassimeres, of usigns styles, as varies suited is the sample week, is good, and there is no difficulty in placing orders for the Autumn Law Stitutes are not as firm, owing to the limited demand, although no impertant change in volend. SUNDAY EVENING'S DISPATCHES.

Later from California. New York, March 25.—The steamer Baltic arrived this P. M. with California dates of the 5th inst., with four bundred and twenty passengers, and $805,000 in specie, brought down by the Golden Gate. The shipment of treasure is unusually small on account of the very large investments in the Washoe Silver Mines.

Mines.

Frigates Roanoke and Sabine, and storeship Relief, were at Aspinwall. The Cortez, with the mails, was to leave in a few hours after the Golden Gale.

A rather destructive fire occurred at Sacramento on the 4th. Weston's brick building, occapied by A. Gearl as a carriage shop; Toll's brick stable, and the old County Court building, which he was fitting up as a hotel, were burnt. Loss $20,000.

Advices from Porthand, Oregon, are to the 27th, and Victoria to the 29th, ult.

The British frigate Topaz had arrived at Esquimanulp.

The British frigate Topus had arrived at Esquimaulp.

The Democratic State Convention, of Oregon, had elected delegates to the Charleston Convention, and the Republican State Convention had appointed delegates to the Chicago Convention.

Lieutenant Mullon's waggon road expedition was in winter quarters. The road is completed 300 miles from Fort Walla-walla, and is expected to se finished to Fort Benton the coming fall.

The Ariel, with the mail from New York, arrived at Aspinwall on the afternoon of the 18th. Gen. Barrios has been elected President of Salvodor.

The Nicaraguan Government has approved the contract with Croskey & Co., and invoked a special session of Congress to ratify it.

The revolution in Siberia, 'Costa Rica, in favor of Ex-President Mora, has been suppressed.

Six or eight members of the Committee are already in the city. It is understood that no change will probably be made as to the place of holding the Convention, but it is thought important that the Committee should be called together to satisfy public opinion, and in the hope that the grievances complained of at Charleston may be abated. The clamor for a change continues unabated from different sections. There is some talk from individual delegates, now here, of an informal call upon the several State delegates to confer at the same time with the Democratic National Committee on the above-named subject.

Prom New York.

New York, March 25.—It is suspected that the Chinaman who was picked up in the yawl, off Barugett, had murdered the captain and his brother, and then deserted the vessel, and his sudden disappearance on arriving at this city, yesterday, tend to confirm the suspicion. The Spray was bound to Virginia for a cargo of oysters, and Captain Leete had in his possession funds for the purchase of his cargo. The police have the affair in hand.

William Johnson, alias Alfred W. Hicks, the suspected murderer of the captain and crew of the oyster sloop E. A. Johnson, arrived here yesterday afternoon, in custody of Detectives Nevins and Smith, of Providence, Rhode Island. A silver watch and a couple of money bags found in possession of the prisoner, have been identified as the property of Captain Burr.

ALBANY, March 25.—The Democratic Central Committee have found that the best arrangement they could make at Charleston for 80 persons is five dollars a day, to commence on the 15th of April, which is one week before the Convention. That is raising the extension to nearly $10 a day each.

Bostox, March 25.—The Royal mail steamer Cunada, from Liverpool via Halifax, arrived here at 7.30 A. M. to-day. Her mails for the South go forward by to-night's overland train, due in New York at 6 A. M. Monday.

Grand Figure Ball Given to the Paris Dem Monde.

The very conclusion of the Carnival, says a Paris letter, was marked by a Fete de Nuit, given by the editors and contributors of the Figare to the most prominent members of the demi-monde. All the facile beauties of the Figare to the most prominent members of the demi-monde. All the facile beauties of the French metropolis were convened to a superb entertainment, where champagne and Liebfrauenmilch were flowing in streams, where the most exquisite viands were crowding the table, where the sound of delightful music from unscen performers, and the sight and perfume of gorgeous exotic flowers contributed to wrap the senses into the most voluptuous dreams of terrestrial bliss. The fete is said to have cost some 200,000f., a sum which, of course, did not come from the pockets of the Figaro gentlemen, who, although possessing the largest possible stock of wit, have the smallest imaginable command of cash. The golden guinesa, in this case, were invested by a select number of gentlemen, belonging to the aristocracy of finance, some of them names of European sound. Patriotic to the back-bone, these numbers of the modern soldlesse, it appears, were eager of triotic to the back-bone, these numbers of the modern neblease, it appears, were eager of outdoing the work of some contemporary philanthropists in Great Britain, who recently entertained a like company as that assembled by the editors of the Figure. The success, and the substitution of champagne and venison for tea and muffins, and music for sermons, have, it is said, surpassed all expectation.

AMERICAN Horses IN ENGLAND.—A letter from England says of the American horses: "Umpire" and "Mainstone" stand equal favorites for the Derby, at nine to one. "Satellite" (formerly "Sheritt,") our Albion colt, stood at a hundred to six for the Chester Cup, but not having shown for the last three days, and being reported lame, he has declined at twenty-five to one."

INSANITY CAUSED BY A DREAM.—Godfrey Stafford, of Marysville, California, having lost his infant by death, dreamed that he saw it alive, since which dream he has been looking for it. for it, and thus become hopelessly mad.

fore the people, as a candidate for the Presidency, the following personal appearance of the gentleman will not be uninteresting:

Mr. Bates is about sixty-four years of age, is about five feet seven inches in hight, and is rather stoutly built, and stoops a good deal, and particularly so when addressing a court or jury, but when particularly interested or excited in the trial of a suit, or in addressing a popular assembly, often becomes as straight as a reed. His hair fifteen years ago was a pure jet black, and was so stiff and unmanageable that he always wore it, and ret does, cropped quite close to the head. Within the past ten years he has grown very gray. His forehead is square and not high, but has large breadth. His eyes are black and small, and deeply set, with shaggy brows. His nose is broad and nostells wide, and perhaps a believer in Lavater would say that his nose was his best feature. His mouth is well-formed and lips rather thin for beauty. His chin is prominent, and cheek bones hardly observable, although his face is not full.

The tones of his voice are very mild and pleasant, and though he is quite subject to excitement in the management of a suit, yet he rarely ever raises his voice above a loud conversational tone. He gestures very little, though with exceeding grace, and moves but little in speaking, and always holds a paper, or book or pen in his hand when addressing a jury. His language is admirable, and he has a peculiar facility in the selection of the sery words he wishes. Being well read in the classics (both prose and poetry), he brings to his familiar command their best stores, and in the selection of his historical allusions and illustrations he exceedes, I think, any public man in the West. He has rare facility

News from Chill is uninteresting. Peru appears to be on the eve of war. It is reported that President Castello is about to march with his entire expedition against Bolivia.

Nothing has been discovered concerning the murder of Captain Lambert, of the British ship Vizer.

Eighty ships were loaded at the Chinchas, and others daily expected.

The Charleston Convention.

WASHINGTON, March 24.—The members of the Democratic National Committee are requested to meet in Washington, on Thursday, April 5, for consultation on important business. A full and prompt attendance is desired.

[Signed.] "D. E. SMALLY, Chairman.

"J. R. Gronge, C. L. Vallandidiam, Julia Riskers he is exceedingly plain, and I think I have never known him to wear any ornament whatever—not even a watch-chain or ring or pin. He has always seemed to have a sort of good-natured contempt of what are called fishions, though he always driess a bag to court, containing his books and papers, and it is always of one color—a dingy brown. The other lawyers in St. Louis are already in the Convention, but it is thought important that the Committee are requested together to satisfy public opinion, and in the hope that the grievances complained of at Charleston may be abated. The clamor regular attendant upon the church services, but I think I have never known him to take any part in the week-day services of the church he attends, and I suppose this may be attributed to his indisposition to appear in public outside of his strict professional duties as a lawyer. He rarely attends any public eathering.

public outside of his strict professional duties as a lawyer. He rarely attends any public gathering.

As an office lawyer, he is very investigating into any matter of business upon which he is consulted, and of late years but few suits of importance have been instituted in St. Louis, in which Mr. Bates has not been consulted before they have been commenced. He enjoys that rare praise for a lawyer of not advising clients into difficulty for the purpose of profiting by it, in the shape of a good paying suit. If he thinks that the applicant for advice is right or wrong he will tell him so, and if his advice is not taken the consequences must be risked. I do not think Mr. Bates is by any means what might be called a great man, but he is exceedingly sensible, and has capital judgment and much force of character, aided to the purest integrity and dignity of character. His friends think he would make a good, and safe and valuable President, and perhaps he would; but with that question I have nothing to do now, as my article is but a personal sketch of the gentleman.

Harrier Hosmen's "Puck."—Miss Harrier Hosmer, now in Rome, has completed, for a gentleman in St. Louis, a statue of "Puck." the fairy messenger of Midsummer Night's Dream; and is said to have treated it so exquisitely that she has been compelled to multiply the statue six or seven times over, to meet the orders for it.
